Steven Joiner is a semi-retired business executive and consultant for trade associations and credit unions, who also has long been a volunteer in and advocate for community-based organizations.

Most recently Steven served for five years as President of the Kenilworth Residents' Association, the fourth such position he has held, spanning over forty years.

Since 2019 Steven also has served on the Board of Directors of the Coalition of Asheville Neighborhoods, most recently joining its Executive Committee as Treasurer.

He has served as Treasurer on the board of directors of a Washington DC based credit union.

Steven also serves on the board of directors of the Beaucatcher Heights Homeowners Association and its Architectural Review Committee.

Steven first came to Asheville in 2016, when he and his wife moved into the house they built in Beaucatcher Heights inside Kenilworth. They chose Asheville for its forested mountains and its food and music scene.
